Thank You so much for your support!

Your membership/contribution will help CFI pursue our mission:

To:

- Increase understanding of, connection to, and care for the Colorado Plateau
- Expand perception of and appreciation for the beauty and integrity of the natural world
- Improve the quality of field-oriented, experiential teaching and learning for students and adults
- Encourage individuals to be involved in the care of their own home places

Through:

- Interdisciplinary studies in natural science, the literary arts, and the physical cultural geography of the region
- Immersion in natural settings and provision of outdoor public service opportunities at field camps, on land and river trips, and in residential retreats
- Dialogue about issues affecting the public, private and tribal lands of the Colorado Plateau bioregion
- The introduction of a land ethic that includes respect, reverence, responsibility and reciprocity to the natural world.
